

Giving to ICMDA in Eurasia

Gifts for ICMDA in Eurasia may be given via the ICMDA (UK) Trust or the ICMDA Eurasia Euro account in the Netherlands. Please note the new bank details for the ICMDA (UK) Trust.

The ICMDA (UK) Trust in the UK is able to accept financial donations for any aspect of ICMDA's work. If you are making a gift specifically for the work of the ICMDA Eurasia region please specify this when sending your gift. Gifts from UK tax payers are eligible for gift aid where the donor has completed a gift aid declaration. Gifts to the ICMDA (UK) trust can be: made online <https://www.charitychoice.co.uk/donation.asp?ref=159185> via the charity choice site; sent by cheque to the financial administrator, Liz Mander; or transferred through online banking using the UK trust's account details. When using the first and last option please also inform Mrs Mander if the gift is specified for a particular area of ICMDA's work either by email or by an appropriate online banking reference when setting up the transfer. Please note the trust can only acknowledge your gift and provide a receipt for your giving records if we have your contact details. The secretary of the UK trust, Dr Mark Pickering can be contacted at uktrust@icmda-online.org.

The ICMDA Eurasia Account held in the Netherlands is a Euro account to enable easier giving for those from countries in the Euro zone. Gifts to this account will be for the use of ICMDA in the Eurasia region unless donors further specify the gift's purpose. Gifts can be transferred through online banking or bank transfer. Please inform the treasurer of the ICMDA Eurasia committee, Dr Kristian Kristensen when you make a donation on eurasia.treasurer@icmda-online.org so that your gift can be acknowledged. Receipts can also be issued for donors as required.
